The Montreal Herald says of a shipment of Alberta cattle recently received at that city:—"The last consignment of North West cattle, en route to the old land, arrived in this city on Nov. 6th, and but a glance at them is sufficient to tell why the English market is always open to Canadian beef. Raised on the ranche and fed with the best nutritious food that can be grown, the cattle now present an appearance at must indeed be a cause of happiness on the part of the owner. The consignment consisted of 244 head. They were loaded at Calgary on Oct. 14th, and filled up all the space in four trains. They were from three to five years old and the manager of the ranche, Mr. J. Herron, says that when killed and ready for the butcher stalls will average 1100 lbs. in weight. The ranche is in Alberta, a district long famed for its excellent cattle raising facilities."

FARMER'S INSTITUTES.

The tendency of the present age in all departments of industry is to combine for purposes of common good. Mechanics, business men, and members of the profession unite, that in solemn convocations they may learn how to further each others interests and materially benefit the whole class. The individuality of the farmer promotes isolation, or vice versa, and hence they are of all men the most conservative as to methods and customs and the last to reap the benefits of the advancing civilization of modern times. This may arise from the fact that oftentimes through ignorance they have become the dupes of the professional cheat, and thus they as a class, are thrown upon their guard and lose finally through respecting the good along with the evil. It is a sign of progress when in a new country we see farmers buying improved machinery and no longer contented to travel in the good old way, being more zealous to farm by steam than sweat and more desirous of being rich in five years than securing a competence in fifty. This is wise, and it is a token for good in these latter days. Farmers' Alliances especially in a new country are a necessity, more so than in any other place, for here we have no exhibitions or large fairs where the farmers can meet at least once a year and discuss, as they examine machinery, the latest improvements in farming. True we have fairs on a limited scale for a day or two, but what knowledge can be gained in such a short time. Now, we hold that there is a fortune for the farmers in the organizing of an Alliance, through which they can meet, say once a month, in some central place and discuss such questions as have special bearing upon the men and their work. Sometimes evils will arise from these Alliances by combining for the purposes of trade upon the Granger plan, a method of dealing dangerous, prejudicial and false alike to the farmers, his friends and the country. Farmers, Mechanics, Grain Buyers and Commercial Men are all united to help themselves and each other, and none of them can afford to institute any proceedings which partake of benefits to one party while another party must suffer. Again, when two or three blessed with the "gift of speech," take up all the time in the meeting which belongs to other members of the Alliance, no good, but much harm must result. It is not in the multitude of words, but in counsel, in the appointing of special committees to make investigations relating to the soil, seed, irrigation, forestry and other matters that good will follow. These committees will bring in reports which ultimately will help the country, put money in the farmers pockets, and show them an easier and more successful way of farming. Individual benefits will thus accrue to the farmers, in knowledge and finances, but unity is strength, and when a body of men, intelligent and earnest, feel that they need something for their district, they can make their demands collectively and their behests must be obeyed. Not only will the Alliance be benefitted but the country will enjoy its share of the glory and the good. We hope the farmers of the Moose Jaw District will organize a vigorous Alliance in the town where they can meet once a month, and study such questions as belong to their calling, besides obtaining by their combined influence, what is needed for the district.

A PROSPECTOR'S TRIP.

To the Editor of the TIMES.

DEAR SIR.—Will you allow me space in your valuable paper to insert a few notes of interest on my return trip from the north:

I came via the Big Arm river leaving the Saskatoon trail where it strikes the valley of the Arm, and following the valley I noticed the game very plentiful, such as black-tail deer, antelope, jack rabbits and prairie chickens. As I neared Eye-Brow Lake I noticed a large herd of sheep which I went to see, and was informed by the shepherd Mr. Wyse, that they numbered about 1800 and have not been fed anything yet, still they all seem in prime condition, only herded by day and corralled at night, and are the property of McLean & Ferguson ranchers. Having rested here a few days before I proceeded on my journey, I paid strict attention to see how this rancho was managed. I was shown around the large and commodious sheds for the sheep 80x180, and a fine stable for his working horses 20x60, and a never-failing well in the stable. A little to one side are two large stables with accommodation for 100 head of cattle which their herd numbers about 700 of which are still running out. I was informed they have an abundant supply of hay and there is no doubt but that they have an excellent place for a rancho. An abundant supply of hay can be procured, lots of timber within a short distance, and good spring water about twenty rods from the stables and a fine flowing well a few rods from the house, and to my surprise whom did I meet other than two of my old acquaintances Mr. Wm. McDougall and G. Moore, the former busily engaged hauling hay and the latter breaking steers, or as George says busting horned bronchos. They seem right at home and I am sure the ranchers should be proud of having such competent men for the winter. They seem to think this better than batching when they come in and see the good taste and regularity in which Mrs. Ferguson has everything prepared to supply the inner man. Mr. Ferguson is highly spoken of by his employees, and Mr. Wyse, by his keen wit, gives the boys many a good laugh. They say he carries the belt for telling good yarns. Mr. McLean, whom I understand resides near Moose Jaw, is always a welcome visitor, for he brings the mail and they are sure of the news as they take the Moose Jaw Times. As I neared Buffalo Lake I saw another rancho which, if I am rightly informed, is owned by Mr. W. C. Sanders. I noticed as I passed by the stock some very good grade cattle. The next place worthy of notice was the rancho of Mr. D. C. McDougall, where I saw another fine flock of sheep, and as I was shown around I noticed some thoroughbreds which looked very well. He has an abundant supply of spring water. The next rancho I saw was that of Bennett Bros. I noticed all the stock in prime condition all the way down the Qu'Appelle Valley.

The annual meeting of Pioneer school district was held in the school room, Friday Jan. 2nd, when the Trustees, Secretary and Treasurers statements were received. The meeting proceeded to the election of a school trustee in room of the retiring one. Four candidates were nominated: Messrs. Wilson, Gatty, Hill, and McIntosh, the two latter declining to stand. When the ballots were taken Mr. Thos. Gatty was elected by a good majority. The annual meeting of Marlborough school district was held in the school room on Jan. 3rd, after a very creditable report was read by Mr. J. G. Beesley, chairman of the Trustees: The Secretary's report by Mr. John Fraser was read and adopted: The Treasurer Mr. Wm. Watson then made his annual statement which proved satisfactory to all concerned. The election of Trustees was then in order. Mr. Wm. Watson thereupon was re-elected trustee by acclamation. We are sorry the Inspector's report of the school got mislaid, at any rate the Inspector classifies this school as A. 1 which is not only gratifying to the teacher but the parents and guardians as well. A meeting of the Farmer's Club was held in Pioneer school house on Tuesday evening last. Mr. Robt. Green was voted to the chair. The subject of the debate was given in a previous issue. Fire was opened by Captain S. K. Rathwell who made a very creditable speech of considerable length in favor of farmers combines, he was followed by Messrs. Zess, Dalgarno, Beasley, Hurlburt, Checker and Wynn. The negative was taken up by Captain Henry Dorrell in a still weightier speech in which Scott and Shakespeare were freely quoted amidst much laughter, when Messrs. Smith, Sparks, Davis Wilson and Gatty followed. At the close of which the chairman gave his decision in favor of the affirmative. It was decided to have the next meeting in Marlborough school house on Monday Jan. 12th, at 6.30 p. m., to take up and discuss the Farmers' Institute Ordinance. All are invited to come and take part both ladies and gentlemen in the programme drawn up. A farmers meeting will be held in Pioneer school house on Tuesday evening Jan. 20th, when a good time is expected. The ladies are invited to attend.—Com.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE

Moose Jaw Agricultural Socy.,

Annual Report of the Officers

AND DIRECTORS.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR—COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO MEET JAN. 1891, RE GRANT

The annual meeting of the Moose Jaw Agricultural Society was held in Campbell's hall January 9th, 1891. The large hall was comfortably filled with representatives of the different districts tributary to Moose Jaw, and the organization of 1891 bids fair to exceed any of its predecessors.

The minutes of the last regular meeting, the Auditor's and Treasurer's reports were read and adopted. The Director's report (which we give in full) was read by the Secretary, and no doubt the present Board of Directors will find some valuable hints and suggestions contained in it.

DIRECTORS' REPORT.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF THE MOOSE JAW AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Directors in presenting their sixth annual report beg to say that notwithstanding the fact that the grain crop of the past year was not as good as that of 1889, yet the Fall Show which was held on October 9th last was a success, considering the very unfavorable weather during the latter part of the harvest and immediately preceding the day of the show. The exhibit of horses and cattle, while not as numerous as it would have been if the weather had been more favorable was a superior quality than in former years. The exhibit of roots and dairy was good, exceeding that of former years. Like as in the year 1889, in connection with the Town Council and Board of Trade of Moose Jaw a large number of Pamphlets were printed and forwarded to the Eastern Provinces and some to the Old country, and the Directors believe that the publication and distribution of these have done considerable good in attracting the attention of parties in the east and elsewhere, and will be the means of bringing settlers to this district. The aggregate sum of prizes awarded at the show held on the 9th of October last is $548.50. There was donated by various parties as special prizes $58.00. During the year, under instructions from the Society, seed grain was procured and given to several of the settlers, but owing to the poor harvest there are several who could not pay for the grain and renewed notes were taken for eight months, and the notes were endorsed by the President and Secretary, and cashed, and the amount paid to Mr. Thompson, from whom the seed wheat was got last spring. The aggregate sum of notes renewed is $274.30, these notes fall due on August 26th, 1891, and for which the Society has become security. The number of parties who took prizes at the show were 64, all of whom are members of the Society by having their members fee for the current year retained out of their prize money. The Directors regret that as in previous years they have had great difficulty in procuring suitable grounds and buildings to hold the show and would suggest to the annual meeting to take into consideration the necessity of taking some action in this matter.

BENJ. SMITH, R. L. ALEXANDER,
President. Secretary.
Moose Jaw, Jan. 9th, 1891.

At the conclusion of the Directors report Mr. Benj. Smith, President addressed the meeting at length on the urgent necessity of electing energetic men to office; thanked the Directors for the able services rendered him during the past year, and hoped the future of agriculture would be even beyond their highest expectation. The President then called for nomination of Officers for the year 1891, when the following were placed in order and elected: President, H. Dorrell; 1st Vice-President, A. Dalgarno; 2nd Vice-President, Hugh Thompson; Secretary O. B. Fysh; Treasurer, J. E. Annable. Auditors—J. G. Gordon and John McIntosh. Directors—John Buchanan, Arthur Davis, H. L. Fysh, Jas. Campbell, J. G. Beesley, Thos. Franks, Jas. Young, Alex. Wilson, H. McDougall, S. K. Rathwell, R. K. Thompson, Hy. Battell.

Mr. Smith, the retiring President after a few pleasant remarks retired from the chair and Mr. Dorrell, President elect took his seat for 1891. Mr. Dorrell thanked the Society for the mark of esteem in placing him in the honorable position of President. He realized fully that the honors of office should be coupled with energetic service and his intention was to try at all times and give the work the attention it seemed to require according to the best of his ability. He urged on the Directors that their appointment was not simply a form but that the success of the Fair depended solely on their exertion. They would be called together from time to time to prepare prize lists, procure grounds, select judges and have the general custody of the Fair so that in assuming the responsible positions to which they had been appointed duties would be imposed that would exact more or less sacrifice. In conclusion he hoped matters relating to Agriculture, and in particular the Fair, would be discussed freely.

A committee consisting of Messrs. B. Smith, S. K. Rathwell, H. Dorrell and R. L. Alexander, was appointed to revise the Prize List and Rules of the Society and report to the Directors at a future meeting. Messrs Henry Battell and James Ostrander was appointed a special committee to solicit special prizes for the coming Fair. A committee consisting of H. Dorrell, A. Dalgarno and Henry Battell was appointed to meet Mr. J. H. Ross, M.L.A., re Grant of money from Legislative Assembly, and report at a Directors meeting to be held January 16th. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers and the meeting adjourned.

DOG FIGHTS.

To the Editor of the TIMES.

Of late it is quite a common occurrence to see a crowd of men and Bull dogs at the south end of Main Street indulging in a little amusement (to the men) of a dog fight. It seems the delight of these Bull-dogs and men to catch a lone dog and worry him for exercise. There is law for disturbers of the peace and your correspondent would like to know if this is a lawful business on the Main street of the town and who is supposed to look after it.

It is fortunate that every one is not wealthy. If we were all rich we would have to black our own boots, carry in the coal and carry out the ashes; do our own cooking and wash the pots and dishes; raise our own bread and meat and prepare it for use. So it will be seen that "poor folks are made for some use. It had not occurred to us how useful they were until the thought suddenly struck us: Suppose everybody was as rich as editors and printers, who would do the work? The reflection was a stunner.

A very pleasant evening was spent last Friday at the residence of Mr. Jas. Mitchell about 12 miles north of town. A party numbering about seventy assembled together to enjoy themselves by dancing etc. Mr. Thos. Franks and Mr. A. Dalgarno were the chief instigators of the affair, and did everything they could in the way of making it a success, and no doubt it was a grand success. The humorous Ned. Eritt was of course, on hand a floor-manager. Tea was served at mid-night and after the party had partaken of the refreshments they immediately proceeded to trip the light fantastic. Such a large party as this is, we understand, a rare sight in this country, and those who were present never enjoyed themselves better. A number of young people of the town drove out and Caron, Pasqua, Buffalo Lake and Boharm were well represented.
